

Letter from Alexander Graham Bell to Mabel Hubbard Bell, August 3, 1892, with transcript

ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL TO MABEL (Hubbard) BELL New Albany, New York. Aug. 3rd, 1892. My darling Mabel

Don't know how you escaped me at the de?ct. Thought at first you had been left behind — as half the baggage was.

Mr. McCurdy started yesterday evening in pursuit of you all — with the hand bags left behind — and determined to see the trunks at the Custom House at the border.

Too much motion to write. Must conclude.

Will stay at Grand Pacific Hotel — Chicago — and expect telegram from you there. If Daisy is still ill send for me to come right back.

Goodbye, Alec.
